ST. CATHERINE'S CHURCH

Despite the stormy weather conditions on Wednesday, there was a large attendance at the Parish Hall of St. Catherine's Church at the talk given by Rev. Charles Biglin, Richmond, Maine, on his experiences as a missionary in British Columbia. He described very vividly the habits and customs of the several different tribes of Indians in that section and we are sure that those who braved the weather were amply repaid for their attendance.

After the talk, there was a penny food which attracted much interest. Father Biglin has promised to come again in the season and give a talk on his experiences as a missionary in the Far West.

On Thursday evening, March 16th, there will be a whist party in the Parish Hall of St. Catherine's Church at 8 o'clock. It is getting near for the letting of the contracts for moving the church, it is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

DRAMATIC AFTERNOON

The Norway Woman's Club observed its annual Dramatic afternoon, Tuesday, and Legion Hall was filled with members and guests for very delightful afternoon. The president, Mrs. Helen Perreault, opened the meeting in form and immediately turned it over to Mrs. Anna A. Rindner, director of the drama, "The Farmerette."

The stage represented a farm house where the Wellington family were living, they having decided to "farm." There was the mother Jane, and three daughters, Josephine, Elmore and Nan and they started with poultry, but Jane was anxious to have them so they tried a dairy herd and their experiences trying to milk were "side-splitting."

A fourth daughter, Minnette Wellington Lawson has been out in the world. She is rather "high hat" to live on the farm but finally decides she might as well settle down there. The Wellingtons have bought the farm of Mrs. Beckwith, and payments have been made on the note and a receipt received. Mrs. Beckwith pesters the life about out of them after she finds they cannot find the receipt. Gracious Anna Bean a homeless "colored lady" begs the privilege of living with them and she shows some money in her "steeking" is willing to help them in their difficulties. So they finally decide to let her remain and she proves of much assistance about the farm, as well as in the house, and really saves the family situation when she dunks the sitting room, and drops the old China tea set, and the lost receipt is found in the ruins. There were amusing lines and situations all the way through which kept the audience in laughter.

A social hour followed and the hospitality committee served tea. Mrs. Rheiner labored under difficulties as she had been ill in bed three days. Ernest Moores assisted with property and "stage" and "props" and Mr. Rheiner assisted in make ups and in various ways so everything went along smoothly.

Mrs. Pearl Cook Kilburn was marinated at gentlemen's night of the Community Club at South Paris.

Rev. W. W. Lyon was the speaker at a council meeting of the Larger Parish at Waterford on Thursday. His subject was "Unseen Realities."

A package of the foil was recently received by mail from Mrs. C. N. L. Walker of Harrison. It adds to the crippled children's fund.

Phineas & Lathrop, electricians have completed a job at the D. W. Goodwin & Son Farm and at Stuartville Hall, Hebron Academy. They have wired the dwelling of Mrs. Mary E. Hone in South Paris and the Messer place on the West Paris road.

Mrs. H. N. Klein has opened dress-making rooms at her home, 2 Main Street. Mrs. Klein resided in Norway on Fair Street several years, but for some time has lived in Portland. Her husband built a bungalow type house below the falls, where they reside.

"Sport" the family dog of Mason Knappe passed away last evening. Knappe was a fine, well beloved pet of children and most everybody who knew him. He was born in 1922 and will be missed greatly for he never was known to bother anybody and was a great friend to everybody in the community.

Don McAllister and Frank Towne are presenting Cliff Mix and the R. K. O. Whoopie Revue at Norway Opera House, Friday evening, March 10, for dancing. The musical team is better known as Cliff Billington's Blue Rhythm Kings who were at the Pirate's Den last Summer. This has been enlarged for vaudeville and has successfully worked on the R. K. O. circuit the past few months.

The Norway Farm Bureau meeting will be held, Wednesday, March 15, at Grange Hall, commencing at 10:30 o'clock. The meeting is for both the men and the women and a new project will be introduced, "House Organizing." Half the day will be devoted to home management, the family income and how to keep down expenses and the other half to poultry management. Donald H. Ridley and the Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Ada Brewster will be in charge.

The Tigris Path Sisters' Club of Lake Temple Pythian Sisters will meet Saturday evening at Pythian Hall. The hostesses will be Mrs. Abbie Heath, Mrs. Ida Morgan, Mrs. Alice Nash, Miss Jessie Everett and Mrs. Mary Kimball. The program committee, Mrs. Mary Dicknell. The 10th anniversary will be observed at this time, and also the annual picnic and each member is requested to respond with some quotation. Supper will be served at the usual hour and the husbands are invited.

The attendance at the men's meeting in Strand Theatre, South Paris, Sunday was 127. Wesley Hammond was the speaker and good music opened the services with a dash. The meeting next Sunday at 8:45 a. m. will be held in American Legion hall, Wesley Hammond will speak, also plenty of singing with an orchestra and other features. A committee has been chosen to select speakers. Those serving are Earle, Clifford, Fred Durbin, and Clayton Churchill of South Paris; Fred Howell, Edwin Gammon and Clarence Wilcox of Norway. The meetings are non-sectarian hoping to bring men into closer touch with worthwhile things that build strong character and that make better citizens. There is a personal message for everyone and a cordial welcome. Songs of well known hymns are used.

THE SHOE WORKERS OF NORWAY

Will do without to take no action toward affiliating with an outside Union Organization of Shoe Workers. It is history that in other cities and towns in New England where this has been done the shoe industry has been disrupted, with a consequent loss of employment by those supposed to be benefited. You can readily understand what the closing of shoe factories in Norway would do to you, your families, your homes, and to your town.

Town Meeting Long Session

Harmonious, One of the Largest Attendance and Longest Sessions in History of the Town. Raised approximately $64,000.00

Realizing the seriousness of the financial situation which required careful judgment and good citizenship, seven hundred voters calmly discussed and acted upon fifty-two articles in the town warrant. The session lasted from 10 a. m. until a few minutes before 6 p. m., with the noon hour out. There was no attempt at spread eagle oratory, but just cold facts were considered. Verbal fireworks and the usual personal squabbles were missing, for all realized the serious business of raising money from the taxpayers already staggering under a load.

Appropriations and action closely followed the recommendations of the budget committee and a free lance group that also offered suggestions.

Town Officers—Henry B. Foster, Clerk—David A. Klein, Selectmen—Raymond H. Eastman, Chester W. Eastman, J. Morton Wyman, Treasurer—Robert F. Bickford, Superintending School—Bernice H. Greenlaw, Elmer L. Aldrich, Robert B. Dow, Supt. of Schools—Winifred H. Edminster, Collector—Robert F. Bickford, Health Officer—Leroy Spiller, Town Commissioners—Clark C. Hunt, Geo. E. Emerson.

All who are not solicited from, bring passy.

Out of respect to the late Mrs. Alice R. Danforth, the Ladies' Circle of the Universalist Church will not meet this week.

Dennis Pike has sold his Elm Hill farm in Paris, formerly known as the Vinton Foster farm, to Leora E. Verrill of Paris, who will make extensive repairs before occupancy.

Thus far March winds have been a fire breeder and numerous calls have been answered. A burning chimney Saturday called the chemical to the A. L. Clark Co. On Sunday a chimney at William H. Sanborn's, Beal Street, and one at the Whitman place on the Oxford road were subdued. The booster was used at the latter place. A hot funnel and chimney at the Dubey house on Water Street was handled Sunday. Smoke filling the upstairs apartment in Clarence Buck's house occupied by James Cole was traced Tuesday to an oil stove. There was no damage. On Wednesday bad chimney fire at South Bridge's house, Cunningham's Place. About $75 damage is estimated and covered by insurance.

BRIDGTON—SANDY CREEK

Our school began Monday after a recess of ten days which the children enjoyed in several ways.

Chester York and sister Gertrude spent several days last week with their aunt, Mrs. John Ross, at Naples.

Robert Sanborn and children visited Mr. Boutlier's sister Mrs. Benjamin Ireland at the Choate farm.

Miss Dorothy Duffee and brother, George, just getting into the long pants brigade. A fashionable plaid rayon hose for 25 cents a pair should fit into the scheme of attractive ankles for a small investment.

At the E. N. Sweet Shoe Co. my better half marched directly to the basement store where she heard new bargains were on the racks and shelves. Don't see how shoes can be retailed for $1.49 and $1.69 but there they are, mostly for women, yet men and boys can find their kind. A new line of 82 shoes for men caught my eye and the goods looked like a real bargain. The price was $1.49 a pair. I zipper and snap overshoes for 98 cents and a window full of 28 cent wool jersey overshoes. Just makes one feel like dressing up to the feet and padding around as in days of our youth. There are other worthwhile money savers but we had to break away from Gene and Eddie. Chores must be done after a tedious home.

We expect to visit the stores again next week. Hulda has the spring fever so galavanting on Tuesday afternoon will be our weekly program. After all, Norway is good enough for us.

Visit The Stores

Wednesday was a bad day for shopping. Rain, snow, slush and ice should suggest staying home, but Hulda had planned during the week to visit Norway village. Nothing would do but we must dress for the occasion and venture out. Wife Hulda is like most every other woman, when she says "go" and the jaw is set, there is nothing else but obey. Makes me think of the hen food slogan "Lay or Bust." In her case, it is "Go or Bust."

I harnessed the family nag into the pump, (halloo!) we don't own a car) and drove to the village. She read last week's Advertiser (not a borrowed copy) hence was all set for a trading jubilee in spite of the bank holiday.

She led the way and our first call was at the Z. L. Merchant store and right up to the counter where a stock of piece goods should gladden the heart of every economical woman. Some change from old days for the best percales marked at 15c a yard. Some big stores ask 15c for the same thing. Hulda called my attention to the 10c kind that seemed excellent trades. Over the way there were new spring dresses, fancy and plain, right up to date colors and shades. Was surprised to see so many ready-to-wear things. Never before realized that women had it so easy picking the nifty and becoming regalia for kitchen, parlor or party. The place is a real dry goods store, with Zeb at your service.

Believing my turn to pick a store, I decided to call again on Fred Pike at the L. F. Pike Co. We critically inspected a complete line of new suits for men. If you want to appear stylish, buy in blues, grays or browns, said the proprietor. A line of all wool worsteds, extra trousers, coat with notched lapels and two buttons looked mighty smart for $19.50 per suit. Sakes alive, what a price drop from World War days. Hulda thought custom made clothes might fit our needs, so we were shown the Taylor suit that had a price range of $17 to $35. Customers are not expected to pay unless they are satisfied as to quality and fit. As one old chap once said, "You are to be the judge of a jury."

Paddling up Main Street, we dropped in to chat with Maford Mann, proprietor of the James Smith Shoe Store. Wife suggested a Curtis Kangaroo shoe for my Sunday best. Leather is smart, it is genuine article, easy as kid, won't peel or chip, and glove fitting. They are for men and a five dollar bill is a fair exchange for the goods. A preparation to re-sole shoes caught my eye. It comes in half-pint cans with a tube of cement and will do at least two pairs. Directions say it is great for mending leather covering of furniture, auto tops, tires, rubber boots etc. Is recommended for cloth or other fabrics. Cost is only 50c.

Hulda caught sight of Fred Brown in the window and away we tramped to the Fred S. Brown store to say hello and perhaps make a few purchases. Of course wife was in her glory among the ready to wear dresses mostly silk. Apparently, the dressless style has been ruled by Dame Fashion because of sleeve effects from shoulder to elbow are on everything. Chiffon bows and capes are a dream for Sunday night dresses and party gowns, that's the way Hulda expressed it. She was quite taken with the matron's styles which decree long sleeves and puffs. A pair of chiffon hose in the new spring shades of brown for $1.00 was tempting buy for Hulda. She just couldn't resist the urge to stock up.

We couldn't go home without a call to the Eliot A. Fuller Co. There are so many things like ties, shirts, sweaters, suits and other wearables for men and boys that picking out specials is a regular job. Mr. Fuller, better known as Eliot, has an offer to stimulate Easter buying. From now until March 18th, he will give a cut price on Royal made-to-measure suits. My prudent Hulda spied the new Partridge corduroy pants priced at $19.50. Goodness, they are a trade for old men, young men and youngsters, just getting into the long pants brigade. A fashionable plaid rayon hose for 25 cents a pair should fit into the scheme of attractive ankles for a small investment.

At the E. N. Sweet Shoe Co. my better half marched directly to the basement store where she heard new bargains were on the racks and shelves. ANNOUNCING

The year's most sensational hosiery news!

BETTER FABRICS TESTING BUREAU CHOOSES NOMEND

Famous Impartial, Non-profit Group Gives Its Highest Award to NoMend on 4 Counts

Following an exhaustive three-months test of leading hosiery brands, Better Fabrics Testing Bureau — famous, non-profit organization with headquarters in New York City — has announced that it has accepted NoMend Silk Hosiery as the standard for Style, Quality, Value and Wear.

So convincing were the results of the severe tests by the Bureau that it has authorized the makers of NoMend to attach the Bureau's seal of approval to every pair of NoMend stockings.

Automatically, this remarkable endorsement makes our store the city's fashion headquarters for hosiery — because, in the judgment of the testing bureau, NoMend is the most discriminating women who have worn our best NoMend customers.

At the same time, the announcement will be most welcome to the hundreds of women whose restricted expenditures have been restricted by
